We listen to KLOVE daily. They play the selection of music that we cannot hear from any other station. It gives us music, weather, news and information of charities, such as the Rescue Mission, Compassion International and Salvation Army, and what these charities are doing for the community. Please do not replace them with an LPFM. They contribute to the community's everyday life and attitude.